Ironman, who runs a transportation service was appointed as an agent by Batman Enterprise to transport consignments of 1.8 metric ton of bananas from Perlis to Kuala Lumpur. The parties signed an agreement for that purpose. In addition to that, the agreement specifically instructed Ironman as the agent to communicate with the principal in any event of adversity faced by him in transporting the products. When the lorry stopped at R&R Perak, Ironman noticed that some of the bananas had started to stale. He immediately separated them, worried that such conditions will affect the good ones. He then sold the stale bananas to the R&R shops at a cheaper price. However, he failed to inform Batman Enterprise. When he arrived, Batman Enterprise was furious with his decision and wanted to sue for damages. As a legal representative of Batman Enterprise, advise them on the following matters:

- a) Whether Batman Enterprise can claim for damages?
- b) Explain any FIVE (5) duties of an agent breached by Ironman in the event stated above, with reference to the provisions in the Contracts Act 1950.
